

This is My Flag

Composed & Performed by Rocky McCollin (Composer)

Many years ago,
three ships sail across the sea
And the Captain of those ships, discovered La Trinity.
But when the English take over me and you
They gave us the flag, the red, white and blue.
But now we tell them

CHORUS:

*This is my flag
The Red, White and Black
There's no turning back
To look for the Union Jack
And so mih sons and mih daughters
Could boast and brag
About the Red, White and Black
That's my Flag.*

I use to take it cool,
under the Colonial rule Until one day,
a great man came my way
He toured the country educate the population And the Red, White and Black was the birth of a nation.

August 1962,
the date our dream came true
When we walked alone,
our lonely road home
No more mother country to guide our destiny,
But the Red, White and Black which means you're free.
So now we tell them

CHORUS

My Nation is cosmopolitan
It goes beyond black and white
Each creed and race has an equal right Now we are on our own and we not turning back
Let us all salute the Red, White and Black.
So now we tell them
